

Angela Connolly

MTA Board of Trustees

K. Stephen Spade

MTA General Manager

Invite you to a News Conference and Demonstration
Friday, September 30, 2005 at 10:30 a.m.

To introduce:

MTA's Bike & Ride Program

Address:

Nollen Plaza, 3rd Street and Locust Street,
across from the Civic Center, weather permitting,
otherwise in the Capital Square Atrium,
400 Locust Street.

Whether you're an avid or casual cyclist, getting around Des Moines will soon be easier than ever thanks to MTA's Bike & Ride program. Beginning October 3, you will be able to pedal your bike to the nearest MTA stop and we will be there to pick you up, along with your bike, at no extra charge.

With a bike rack on every regular, express and commuter route bus you will be able take your bike just about anywhere - work, special events, parks, even your favorite bike trail!

Please join us as we introduce MTA's Bike & Ride Program to Greater Des Moines:

Welcome - Angela Connolly, MTA Board of Trustees

Overview of Program - K. Stephen Spade, MTA General Manager

Demonstrations - Bike group volunteers

Closing - K. Stephen Spade, MTA General Manager

For more information, please contact: Brian M. Litchfield, MTA Director of Program Development at litchfieldb@dmmta.com or (515) 283-5007.

The MTA Bike & Ride Program is sponsored by the following organizations:

